

HARDING WORKS TO UNITE ALL IN G. O. P.

Continued from First Page.

of a political boss," he said, "and that fact has been the occasion of some complaint against me in Ohio."

Three candidates for the Republican nomination for the Ohio Senate have entered their names. They are Frank H. Willis, former Governor, R. M. Wann, former Mayor of Akron, and Walter F. Brown, mayor of Toledo. An filing time has expired, of Toledo. The candidates for the Ohio Senate will be on August 16. All the candidates are friends of Senator Harding.

Chairman Will H. Hays of the Republican National Committee is to be here Monday, according to present plans, and will talk with Senator Harding before the latter leaves Washington. The two last named, though Democrats, are in Chicago after the nomination.

At the Harding offices in the Senate Office Building business was quite too active today to permit any golf game. Telegrams and letters of congratulation continued to pour in. Among the callers were former Senator George Sutherland of Utah and Senators Jones (Wash.), Stanley (Ky.), Sheppard (Tex.), The two last named, though Democrats, extended their congratulations with much earnestness. Letters included one from Miss Mabel Boardman, head of the Red Cross; Mrs. John A. Logan and Secretary of the Interior Payne.

Former Senator Thomas Taggart of Indiana, Democrat, sent this telegram: "I desire to take this opportunity to congratulate you upon your nomination. It was certainly a great victory for you. I remember with much pleasure your many kindnesses while in the Senate and I have said repeatedly that if we had a Republican President you would be my first choice."

Mayor J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia, long a member of the House of Representatives, wired: "We rejoice in your election. We begin organizing immediately."

From former Gov. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania came this: "Heartiest congratulations and tender services for the campaign."

The responsibility is great. There is much important work to be done. This should command our most unselfish efforts. I place myself unreservedly at your service, not only in the campaign, but also in the work which will follow your inauguration.

The nation's honor, its prosperity, its peace, its progress, the happiness and contentment of its people should be the watchword. We should dedicate ourselves to the accomplishment of these purposes.

Answers Wood's Congratulations.

Replying to a telegram of cordial congratulations from Major-Gen. Leonard Wood, Senator Harding today wrote: "My Dear Gen. Wood: Thank you very much for your message of congratulation. I do not know quite how to express my feelings in writing an acknowledgment to one who was a contender for the honor which came to me. Perhaps I shall express myself sufficiently if I say that had the distinction come to you instead of me I should have found very great pleasure and satisfaction in conveying to you a very cordial message of felicitation and good wishes."

I know that we are both interested in the same great goal, to our common country and I feel confident that you will be very deeply interested in bringing about a restoration of a Republican party administration in Washington and a return to the constitutional methods of Government which were the concept of the founding fathers."

Gen. Pershing personally called this afternoon to pay his respects and extend congratulations to the nominee. He said, Col. John G. Quekemyer, called Senator Harding's office on the telephone, explained the wish of the General to make the call and was assured that they would be received at any time. Gen. Pershing spent about fifteen minutes with the Presidential candidate.

"Senator Harding is an old and good friend," said Gen. Pershing as he left. "It was only a social call."

Hays to See Harding on Monday.

Chairman Will H. Hays of the Republican National Committee is to be here Monday, according to present plans, and will talk with Senator Harding before the latter leaves Washington. The two last named, though Democrats, are in Chicago after the nomination.

At the Harding offices in the Senate Office Building business was quite too active today to permit any golf game. Telegrams and letters of congratulation continued to pour in. Among the callers were former Senator George Sutherland of Utah and Senators Jones (Wash.), Stanley (Ky.), Sheppard (Tex.), The two last named, though Democrats, extended their congratulations with much earnestness. Letters included one from Miss Mabel Boardman, head of the Red Cross; Mrs. John A. Logan and Secretary of the Interior Payne.

Former Senator Thomas Taggart of Indiana, Democrat, sent this telegram: "I desire to take this opportunity to congratulate you upon your nomination. It was certainly a great victory for you. I remember with much pleasure your many kindnesses while in the Senate and I have said repeatedly that if we had a Republican President you would be my first choice."

Mayor J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia, long a member of the House of Representatives, wired: "We rejoice in your election. We begin organizing immediately."

From former Gov. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania came this: "Heartiest congratulations and tender services for the campaign."

The responsibility is great. There is much important work to be done. This should command our most unselfish efforts. I place myself unreservedly at your service, not only in the campaign, but also in the work which will follow your inauguration.

The nation's honor, its prosperity, its peace, its progress, the happiness and contentment of its people should be the watchword. We should dedicate ourselves to the accomplishment of these purposes.

Answers Wood's Congratulations.

Replying to a telegram of cordial congratulations from Major-Gen. Leonard Wood, Senator Harding today wrote: "My Dear Gen. Wood: Thank you very much for your message of congratulation. I do not know quite how to express my feelings in writing an acknowledgment to one who was a contender for the honor which came to me. Perhaps I shall express myself sufficiently if I say that had the distinction come to you instead of me I should have found very great pleasure and satisfaction in conveying to you a very cordial message of felicitation and good wishes."

I know that we are both interested in the same great goal, to our common country and I feel confident that you will be very deeply interested in bringing about a restoration of a Republican party administration in Washington and a return to the constitutional methods of Government which were the concept of the founding fathers."

Gen. Pershing personally called this afternoon to pay his respects and extend congratulations to the nominee. He said, Col. John G. Quekemyer, called Senator Harding's office on the telephone, explained the wish of the General to make the call and was assured that they would be received at any time. Gen. Pershing spent about fifteen minutes with the Presidential candidate.

"Senator Harding is an old and good friend," said Gen. Pershing as he left. "It was only a social call."

Hays to See Harding on Monday.

Chairman Will H. Hays of the Republican National Committee is to be here Monday, according to present plans, and will talk with Senator Harding before the latter leaves Washington. The two last named, though Democrats, are in Chicago after the nomination.

At the Harding offices in the Senate Office Building business was quite too active today to permit any golf game. Telegrams and letters of congratulation continued to pour in. Among the callers were former Senator George Sutherland of Utah and Senators Jones (Wash.), Stanley (Ky.), Sheppard (Tex.), The two last named, though Democrats, extended their congratulations with much earnestness. Letters included one from Miss Mabel Boardman, head of the Red Cross; Mrs. John A. Logan and Secretary of the Interior Payne.

Former Senator Thomas Taggart of Indiana, Democrat, sent this telegram: "I desire to take this opportunity to congratulate you upon your nomination. It was certainly a great victory for you. I remember with much pleasure your many kindnesses while in the Senate and I have said repeatedly that if we had a Republican President you would be my first choice."

Mayor J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia, long a member of the House of Representatives, wired: "We rejoice in your election. We begin organizing immediately."

From former Gov. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania came this: "Heartiest congratulations and tender services for the campaign."

The responsibility is great. There is much important work to be done. This should command our most unselfish efforts. I place myself unreservedly at your service, not only in the campaign, but also in the work which will follow your inauguration.

The nation's honor, its prosperity, its peace, its progress, the happiness and contentment of its people should be the watchword. We should dedicate ourselves to the accomplishment of these purposes.

Answers Wood's Congratulations.

Replying to a telegram of cordial congratulations from Major-Gen. Leonard Wood, Senator Harding today wrote: "My Dear Gen. Wood: Thank you very much for your message of congratulation. I do not know quite how to express my feelings in writing an acknowledgment to one who was a contender for the honor which came to me. Perhaps I shall express myself sufficiently if I say that had the distinction come to you instead of me I should have found very great pleasure and satisfaction in conveying to you a very cordial message of felicitation and good wishes."

I know that we are both interested in the same great goal, to our common country and I feel confident that you will be very deeply interested in bringing about a restoration of a Republican party administration in Washington and a return to the constitutional methods of Government which were the concept of the founding fathers."

Gen. Pershing personally called this afternoon to pay his respects and extend congratulations to the nominee. He said, Col. John G. Quekemyer, called Senator Harding's office on the telephone, explained the wish of the General to make the call and was assured that they would be received at any time. Gen. Pershing spent about fifteen minutes with the Presidential candidate.

"Senator Harding is an old and good friend," said Gen. Pershing as he left. "It was only a social call."

Hays to See Harding on Monday.

Chairman Will H. Hays of the Republican National Committee is to be here Monday, according to present plans, and will talk with Senator Harding before the latter leaves Washington. The two last named, though Democrats, are in Chicago after the nomination.

At the Harding offices in the Senate Office Building business was quite too active today to permit any golf game. Telegrams and letters of congratulation continued to pour in. Among the callers were former Senator George Sutherland of Utah and Senators Jones (Wash.), Stanley (Ky.), Sheppard (Tex.), The two last named, though Democrats, extended their congratulations with much earnestness. Letters included one from Miss Mabel Boardman, head of the Red Cross; Mrs. John A. Logan and Secretary of the Interior Payne.

Former Senator Thomas Taggart of Indiana, Democrat, sent this telegram: "I desire to take this opportunity to congratulate you upon your nomination. It was certainly a great victory for you. I remember with much pleasure your many kindnesses while in the Senate and I have said repeatedly that if we had a Republican President you would be my first choice."

Mayor J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia, long a member of the House of Representatives, wired: "We rejoice in your election. We begin organizing immediately."

From former Gov. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania came this: "Heartiest congratulations and tender services for the campaign."

The responsibility is great. There is much important work to be done. This should command our most unselfish efforts. I place myself unreservedly at your service, not only in the campaign, but also in the work which will follow your inauguration.

The nation's honor, its prosperity, its peace, its progress, the happiness and contentment of its people should be the watchword. We should dedicate ourselves to the accomplishment of these purposes.

Answers Wood's Congratulations.

Replying to a telegram of cordial congratulations from Major-Gen. Leonard Wood, Senator Harding today wrote: "My Dear Gen. Wood: Thank you very much for your message of congratulation. I do not know quite how to express my feelings in writing an acknowledgment to one who was a contender for the honor which came to me. Perhaps I shall express myself sufficiently if I say that had the distinction come to you instead of me I should have found very great pleasure and satisfaction in conveying to you a very cordial message of felicitation and good wishes."

I know that we are both interested in the same great goal, to our common country and I feel confident that you will be very deeply interested in bringing about a restoration of a Republican party administration in Washington and a return to the constitutional methods of Government which were the concept of the founding fathers."

Pennsylvania's Wheat Area Almost Up to 1919's

HARRISBURG, June 16.—Reports to the State Department of Agriculture show 26,630 acres, or less than 2 per cent. of the area seeded to wheat in Pennsylvania last fall have been abandoned.

It is estimated that there will be 1,566,140 acres to harvest, although labor will be short. Reports to the department show idle farms in every county except Northampton, which is being checked up.

tive to effort perish. All our freedom comes from the support of the constituted authority.

"There is coming a time, not far distant, when it will be as much of a disgrace for those who are affluent to remain in idleness as it is to-day for those men who go idle and begging about the streets in our cities and towns."

The honorary degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred upon John P. O'Brien of the class of 1894, Corporation Counsel of New York city.

Palmer Going to San Francisco.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Attorney-General Palmer announced today that he would go to San Francisco to attend the meeting June 25 of the Democratic National Committee, of which he is a member, and would remain there during the sessions of the national convention. Accompanied by Mrs. Palmer he will leave Philadelphia Monday on the special train carrying the Pennsylvania delegation.

From former Gov. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania came this: "Heartiest congratulations and tender services for the campaign."

The responsibility is great. There is much important work to be done. This should command our most unselfish efforts. I place myself unreservedly at your service, not only in the campaign, but also in the work which will follow your inauguration.

The nation's honor, its prosperity, its peace, its progress, the happiness and contentment of its people should be the watchword. We should dedicate ourselves to the accomplishment of these purposes.

Answers Wood's Congratulations.

Replying to a telegram of cordial congratulations from Major-Gen. Leonard Wood, Senator Harding today wrote: "My Dear Gen. Wood: Thank you very much for your message of congratulation. I do not know quite how to express my feelings in writing an acknowledgment to one who was a contender for the honor which came to me. Perhaps I shall express myself sufficiently if I say that had the distinction come to you instead of me I should have found very great pleasure and satisfaction in conveying to you a very cordial message of felicitation and good wishes."

I know that we are both interested in the same great goal, to our common country and I feel confident that you will be very deeply interested in bringing about a restoration of a Republican party administration in Washington and a return to the constitutional methods of Government which were the concept of the founding fathers."

Gen. Pershing personally called this afternoon to pay his respects and extend congratulations to the nominee. He said, Col. John G. Quekemyer, called Senator Harding's office on the telephone, explained the wish of the General to make the call and was assured that they would be received at any time. Gen. Pershing spent about fifteen minutes with the Presidential candidate.

"Senator Harding is an old and good friend," said Gen. Pershing as he left. "It was only a social call."

Hays to See Harding on Monday.

Chairman Will H. Hays of the Republican National Committee is to be here Monday, according to present plans, and will talk with Senator Harding before the latter leaves Washington. The two last named, though Democrats, are in Chicago after the nomination.

At the Harding offices in the Senate Office Building business was quite too active today to permit any golf game. Telegrams and letters of congratulation continued to pour in. Among the callers were former Senator George Sutherland of Utah and Senators Jones (Wash.), Stanley (Ky.), Sheppard (Tex.), The two last named, though Democrats, extended their congratulations with much earnestness. Letters included one from Miss Mabel Boardman, head of the Red Cross; Mrs. John A. Logan and Secretary of the Interior Payne.

Former Senator Thomas Taggart of Indiana, Democrat, sent this telegram: "I desire to take this opportunity to congratulate you upon your nomination. It was certainly a great victory for you. I remember with much pleasure your many kindnesses while in the Senate and I have said repeatedly that if we had a Republican President you would be my first choice."

Mayor J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia, long a member of the House of Representatives, wired: "We rejoice in your election. We begin organizing immediately."

From former Gov. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania came this: "Heartiest congratulations and tender services for the campaign."

The responsibility is great. There is much important work to be done. This should command our most unselfish efforts. I place myself unreservedly at your service, not only in the campaign, but also in the work which will follow your inauguration.

The nation's honor, its prosperity, its peace, its progress, the happiness and contentment of its people should be the watchword. We should dedicate ourselves to the accomplishment of these purposes.

Answers Wood's Congratulations.

Replying to a telegram of cordial congratulations from Major-Gen. Leonard Wood, Senator Harding today wrote: "My Dear Gen. Wood: Thank you very much for your message of congratulation. I do not know quite how to express my feelings in writing an acknowledgment to one who was a contender for the honor which came to me. Perhaps I shall express myself sufficiently if I say that had the distinction come to you instead of me I should have found very great pleasure and satisfaction in conveying to you a very cordial message of felicitation and good wishes."

I know that we are both interested in the same great goal, to our common country and I feel confident that you will be very deeply interested in bringing about a restoration of a Republican party administration in Washington and a return to the constitutional methods of Government which were the concept of the founding fathers."

Gen. Pershing personally called this afternoon to pay his respects and extend congratulations to the nominee. He said, Col. John G. Quekemyer, called Senator Harding's office on the telephone, explained the wish of the General to make the call and was assured that they would be received at any time. Gen. Pershing spent about fifteen minutes with the Presidential candidate.

"Senator Harding is an old and good friend," said Gen. Pershing as he left. "It was only a social call."

Hays to See Harding on Monday.

Chairman Will H. Hays of the Republican National Committee is to be here Monday, according to present plans, and will talk with Senator Harding before the latter leaves Washington. The two last named, though Democrats, are in Chicago after the nomination.

At the Harding offices in the Senate Office Building business was quite too active today to permit any golf game. Telegrams and letters of congratulation continued to pour in. Among the callers were former Senator George Sutherland of Utah and Senators Jones (Wash.), Stanley (Ky.), Sheppard (Tex.), The two last named, though Democrats, extended their congratulations with much earnestness. Letters included one from Miss Mabel Boardman, head of the Red Cross; Mrs. John A. Logan and Secretary of the Interior Payne.

Former Senator Thomas Taggart of Indiana, Democrat, sent this telegram: "I desire to take this opportunity to congratulate you upon your nomination. It was certainly a great victory for you. I remember with much pleasure your many kindnesses while in the Senate and I have said repeatedly that if we had a Republican President you would be my first choice."

Mayor J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia, long a member of the House of Representatives, wired: "We rejoice in your election. We begin organizing immediately."

From former Gov. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania came this: "Heartiest congratulations and tender services for the campaign."

The responsibility is great. There is much important work to be done. This should command our most unselfish efforts. I place myself unreservedly at your service, not only in the campaign, but also in the work which will follow your inauguration.

The nation's honor, its prosperity, its peace, its progress, the happiness and contentment of its people should be the watchword. We should dedicate ourselves to the accomplishment of these purposes.

"OLD GUARD TREATED US WITH CONTEMPT"

Anderson Says Drys Now
Have Mandate From People.

William H. Anderson, State Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of New York, who has returned from the Republican National Convention, yesterday issued the following statement:

"The Anti-Saloon League sought in good faith to get an honest, adequate enforcement plank from the Republican National Convention. The league always has an object in making such requests. The campaign of education quietly carried on to secure such a plank around the people to a better realization of the situation. The failure to obtain it impressed upon the people so aroused and many others the need of an effective prohibition agency to stay on the job. The refusal of the party of moral reform to follow the precedent it set on the slavery question has given the Anti-Saloon League a mandate to protect prohibition from the politician till the brewery traffic commits suicide or the Old Guard sprouts a conscience."

"While there is very little likelihood that the anti-saloon forces will in any organized way oppose the Republican nominee for President or the Republican party as such, the public and the politicians should understand that the Republican party is in very great danger of being beaten if the Democratic party nominates either a strong dry candidate or a strong wet candidate on a platform to match."

"The only thing that will save the Republican party from grave peril will be straddling and pussyfooting on the prohibition question by the Democrats also."

to use what we owned and give our business force to reduce the high cost of living, as any subscription we ever made for Liberty or Victory Bonds.

It was our belief that only by joint effort of the business men of the nation could a stop be put effectively to prices planned to rise higher.

We have lengthened out the time, for a short while only, at our own cost, to gather continuous evidences of the good politics of the case as it relates to large stocks of goods hidden away that should have been marketed months ago, had not the manufacturers concluded to try for higher prices.

Now that financial reasons have forced them out we believe the time has come to make a more determined effort to clean up and begin upon a further moderated basis of profits.

The elections ahead of us must speedily force "getting down to brass tacks," and if the people will defer any purchases over and above their actual wants, many more wares will come out of their holes to be sold at reasonable prices.

[Signed] John Wanamaker

June 17, 1920.

In the Auditorium
Thursday at 2:30

Piano Recital
Under the direction of
LOUIS STILLMAN
First Gallery, New Bldg.

For Miss 14 to 20
Picturesque
cool Frocks
$32.50—less 20 per cent.
—you pay $26

White Swiss with wee dots of red; navy blue with white dots; mauve with white dots; or beige with white dots—fashion's favorite combinations of colors for 1920.

Frocks* are just what they should be in style, too—dainty, quaint, and yet chic. One model is illustrated. Also a charming model in a novelty Swiss which has fine stripes as well as dots of white on colored grounds.

Silk Frocks
of our $49.50 grade, specially purchased to sell for $36.50—deduct 20 per cent. and you pay $29.20.

Taffetas, Georgette crepes in plain colors, and printed chiffons. Simple frocks, but stunning silhouettes.

EXTRA—suits of excellent pongee, $37.50—deduct 20 per cent.—you pay $30.

Second floor, Old Building, Tenth st.

Fine new Lingerie
from Paris

PETTICOATS—beautifully hand-made and hand-embroidered. Eyelet embroidery, dots and deep scallops. $4.75 to $12.

CHEMISES—made of exquisitely sheer nainsook and handkerchief linen. Bodice or regulation top. Embroidery is combined with net and hemstitching. Several models have real lace. $6.75 to $12.

NIGHTGOWNS—charming styles, with round, square, or V neck; daintily trimmed with lace and embroidery. $9.75 to $12.75.

You take 20 per cent. off all these prices. Imported Shops—Third floor, Old Building.

To satisfy June's pressing needs—
We have specially priced a large group
of Women's Stockings and Underwear

And from the actual prices, you will further deduct 20 per cent. as you buy.

Main floor, Old Building.

Second floor, Old Building.

Second floor, Old Building.

Second floor, Old Building.

Second floor, Old Building.

Second floor, Old Building.

JOHN WANAMAKER

Broadway at Ninth, New York

Telephone Stuyvesant 4700

Store Hours 9 to 5

We have lengthened the time, for a short while

You still have choice of anything in the Store at 20 per cent. off actual prices (a few price-restricted articles excepted). It is a luxury, under present conditions, to be able to save on necessities.

We are Simply Bent on Doing Our Part

What we contemplated by our announcement on the first Monday of May, placing practically every inch of goods and article of merchandise under our roofs, which we owned, at the disposal of our patrons at

One-fifth off regular values was not to make mere sales, but it was quite as much of

A patriotic contribution

to use what we owned and give our business force to reduce the high cost of living, as any subscription we ever made for Liberty or Victory Bonds.

It was our belief that only by joint effort of the business men of the nation could a stop be put effectively to prices planned to rise higher.

We have lengthened out the time, for a short while only, at our own cost, to gather continuous evidences of the good politics of the case as it relates to large stocks of goods hidden away that should have been marketed months ago, had not the manufacturers concluded to try for higher prices.

Now that financial reasons have forced them out we believe the time has come to make a more determined effort to clean up and begin upon a further moderated basis of profits.

The elections ahead of us must speedily force "getting down to brass tacks," and if the people will defer any purchases over and above their actual wants, many more wares will come out of their holes to be sold at reasonable prices.

[Signed] John Wanamaker

June 17, 1920.

In the Auditorium
Thursday at 2:30

Piano Recital
Under the direction of
LOUIS STILLMAN
First Gallery, New Bldg.

For Miss 14 to 20
Picturesque
cool Frocks
$32.50—less 20 per cent.
—you pay $26

White Swiss with wee dots of red; navy blue with white dots; mauve with white dots; or beige with white dots—fashion's favorite combinations of colors for 1920.

Frocks* are just what they should be in style, too—dainty, quaint, and yet chic. One model is illustrated. Also a charming model in a novelty Swiss which has fine stripes as well as dots of white on colored grounds.

Silk Frocks
of our $49.50 grade, specially purchased to sell for $36.50—deduct 20 per cent. and you pay $29.20.

Taffetas, Georgette crepes in plain colors, and printed chiffons. Simple frocks, but stunning silhouettes.

EXTRA—suits of excellent pongee, $37.50—deduct 20 per cent.—you pay $30.

Second floor, Old Building, Tenth st.

Fine new Lingerie
from Paris

PETTICOATS—beautifully hand-made and hand-embroidered. Eyelet embroidery, dots and deep scallops. $4.75 to $12.

CHEMISES—made of exquisitely sheer nainsook and handkerchief linen. Bodice or regulation top. Embroidery is combined with net and hemstitching. Several models have real lace. $6.75 to $12.

NIGHTGOWNS—charming styles, with round, square, or V neck; daintily trimmed with lace and embroidery. $9.75 to $12.75.

You take 20 per cent. off all these prices. Imported Shops—Third floor, Old Building.

To satisfy June's pressing needs—
We have specially priced a large group
of Women's Stockings and Underwear

And from the actual prices, you will further deduct 20 per cent. as you buy.

Main floor, Old Building.

Second floor, Old Building.

Second floor, Old Building.

Second floor, Old Building.

The Fashion Side of the Sale of Women's Sweaters

We are always willing to grant that a sale is truly unusual and value-giving when it features excellence of materials, fineness of workmanship, and equally—if not a little more—important, smartness of mode. A wrap or a frock—or a sweater—may be ever so well made and of the most lovely of materials, but if it is not of the mode modish, its purchase affords scant pleasure.

so summery and becoming. And besides these a gay orange and the ever-smart